

Dear Ones,

Tonight, Friday March 20th, in place of our scheduled Presanctified Liturgy, we will have a Reader's Lenten Vespers service at 6pm.

You can find the text for it on our website under the "Events" tab.

Also, matushka Sarah, Sofia, Tess and I worked on a recording of the beautiful hymn "Let my prayer arise". I know there are many recordings of this piece that are much better and more professionally recorded. Also there are many services broadcasted live from a handful of monasteries and parishes (I'll post a list soon). In these times however, I thought a familiar voice from our own community might go a long way in providing comfort and hope.

Stay tuned for more reader's services to be posted.

Also, in the spirit of our coffee hour, I will try to make the rounds and call as many of you as possible to see how you are doing. Meanwhile, if you ever need to reach me, you can email me at frmirceageana@gmail.com or call my cell at (603)391-2372.

In Christ, the Physician of our souls and bodies,
Fr. Mircea
