

Dear brothers and sisters,

In the spirit of continuing our Lenten journey together and increasing our efforts to come closer to Christ, we will read an Akathist service tomorrow, Thursday March 19th at 7pm. Although we will do so separately, in our own homes, we will be united in prayer. Since the third Sunday in Lent is the Sunday of the Cross, I thought it most appropriate to do the Akathist to the Precious Cross.

We are reminded that "a single raising of our mind to God and a single humble genuflection to His glory and in His honor has infinitely more value than all the treasures of the world". (from "The Unseen Warfare").

The Akathist is posted on the events tab so that everyone can read it.

In Christ,
Fr. Mircea
